Unfortunately, if you are reading this you probably already bought and installed the Schlage Arrive or another model. What a nightmare to set up. This is the worst I have ever had to suffer through. I am a few hours in and it still will not pair with the app via bluetooth. Just a soul sucking process. Skip buying this lock and pull your fingernails out instead.

while it's nice to use the app for what it is. the thing that's getting really annoying is that the session keeps expiring repeatedly. It would sometimes do it after 2 weeks, which is dumb, BTW, but now it randomly logs me out and I have to keep logging back in. there's no point in having notifications enabled if you're going to be LOGGED OUT without being aware of it. change this setting, or give us an option to opt out or extend the sessions. thanks in advance.
